THE WANPAOSHAN AFFAIR

REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SATISFACTORILY SETTLED

Rengo to Chronicle

Nanking, Aug. 5

The Wanpaoshan affair has been satisfactorily settled, according to a despatch received by the Foreign Office from the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs at Kirin. The report adds that the Korean peasants at Wanpaoshan have decided to withdraw unconditionally and Japanese authorities have approved of their decision.

CHINESE MINISTER'S INVESTIGATION

Nanking, Aug. 5

It has been informally decided that Mr. Wang Ying-pao, the Chinese Minister to Tokyo will be relieved of his post at his own request and General Chiang Tso-pin, the present Minister in Berlin, be appointed to his post. Mr. Wang is said to hold himself responsible for the Korean affair.

He went to Korea when the recent trouble arose and following investigations there has now arrived in Nanking.
